

Twenty-Six RoadKILLS

DANIEL D. TEOLI JR.

Dedication

This book is dedicated to all the photographers that have been or will be; that are driven to record our world, but for why, they know not. They are driven to photograph without hope of recognition, fame, glory or riches. But they do know one thing. As long as they can keep pressing the button and freeze time, they feel better for it.

"The more I do...the more I do."

Garry Winogrand

WARNING

Images must not be abused or they can scuff ~ treat with the care you use when handling a fine art photograph.

Introduction

In 1963, Ed Ruscha published what is considered to be the first modern artist's book Twentysix Gasoline Stations.

In the Tri-State area where I live, the gas stations are all cookie cutter affairs...nothing noteworthy.

But...after darkness falls, each night the cars and wildlife do battle.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of Ed Ruscha's landmark book Twentysix Gasoline Stations.

I present to you...Twenty-Six Roadkills.
